Foreword

Carl Sandburg, in his poem, "Skyscraper", says, "It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day that give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories."

And so it is with L.C.S.—and we, the members of the Class of 1968.

From warm human contacts with dedicated and understanding teachers, as well as the daily "give and take" of fellow students, have come our dreams; our thinking has been whetted; and a wealth of memories has been backlogged for the future.

It is our sincere hope that this book may, in some small way, preserve a dream or two, keep alive a thought or two, and, perhaps, at some distant time provide a bit of nostalgia for a fellow traveler—or two.

GENEVIEVE SHEAR VALENTINE

1897 - 1967

She has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much; who has enjoyed the trust of women, the respect of men and the affection of children; who has left the world better than she found it; who has never lacked appreciation of earth's beauty or failed to express it; who has always looked for the best in others and given them the best she had; whose life was an inspiration; whose memory a benediction.

Adapted from definition of success by Bessie Anderson.

JUNE MARIE TABER

1950 - 1967

Though now beyond earth's farthest hills you fare,
Song-crowned, immortal, sometimes it seems to me
That, if I listen very quietly,
Perhaps I'll hear a light foot on the stair
And see you, standing with your angel air,
Fresh from the uplands of eternity.

Rupert Brooke.

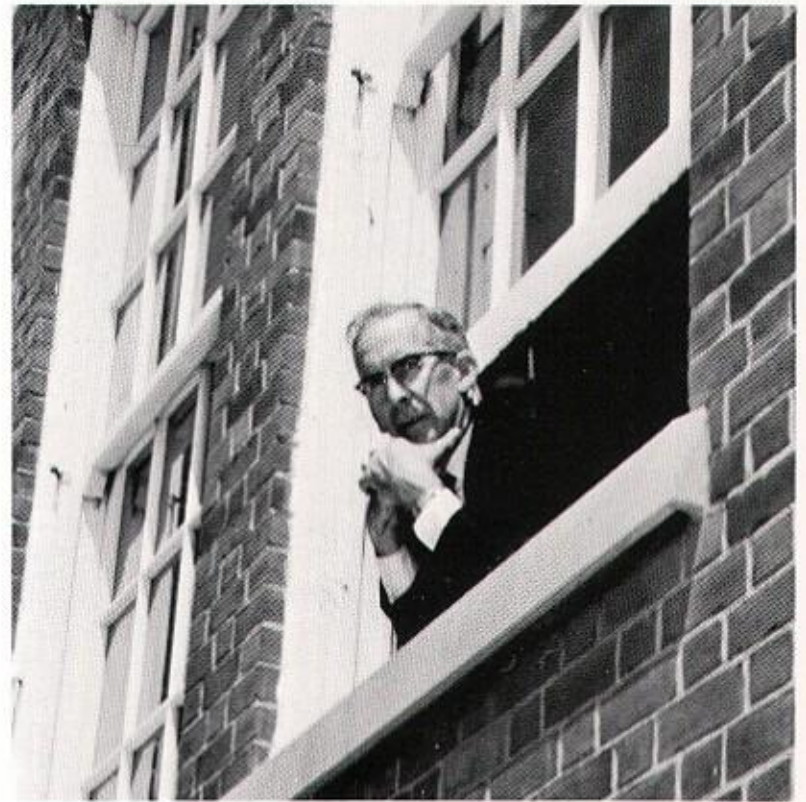

MR. REGINALD W. CROUSE—Supervising Principal and MR. ROBERT H. TERRY—High School Principal.

Who doesn't know these two administrators? Hard-working and devoted ... whose judgments are just ... tactful ... admired ... enforcers of rules ... counseling the troubled and the troublemakers ... friends ... busy but never too busy to help a student.

A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops.

Contemplating the marriage ceremony.

You only get out of it what you put into it!

You're supposed to use paper 8½ by 11!

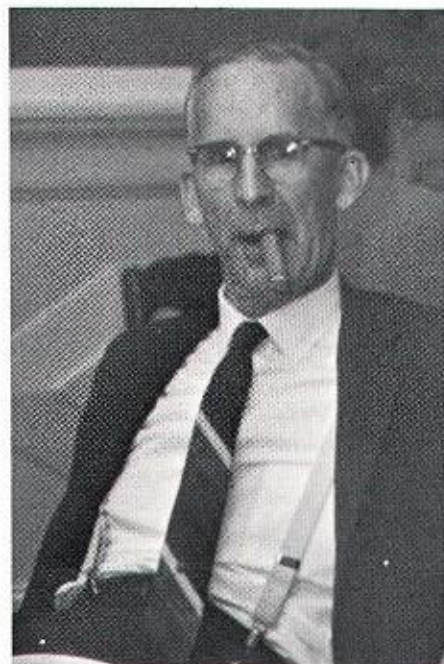

But the plan was to pass—then shoot.

It's still not right ...

My life has sure changed since I started driving a Mustang.

Well, a man has to relax sometime.

You know I'm shy and bashful.

First of all, you put the key in—

Boualy Manithip—A.F.S. Student

Boualy Manithip, this year's A.F.S. student, comes to us from Laos, to live with the Robert McDowell family. She has two sisters at home. Her father is a merchant, her mother a housewife.

Winsome, brown-eyed Boualy has won our hearts and we have again been reminded of how great a privilege it is to have a young person from another land become, for a time, a part of our lives.

We shall truly miss Boualy . . .

her fascination with new experiences . . .

her friendliness . . .

her eagerness and her hardworking attitude . . .

and her willingness and desire to fit into our American life.

SENIORS

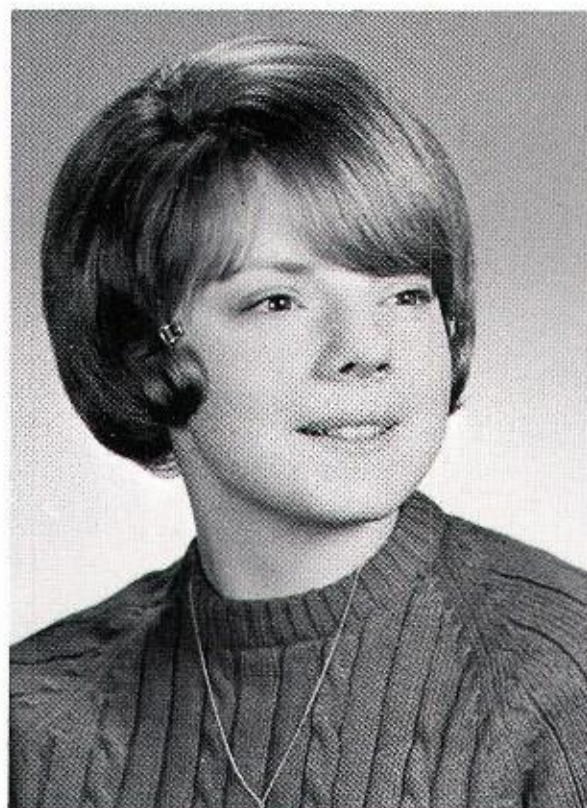

Miss Bower:

As friend and advisor, you have helped us solve many problems and achieve successes. We, the Class of 1968, gratefully thank you for your time, energy, ideas and concern while being our advisor. We will certainly miss you.

Mr. Parton:

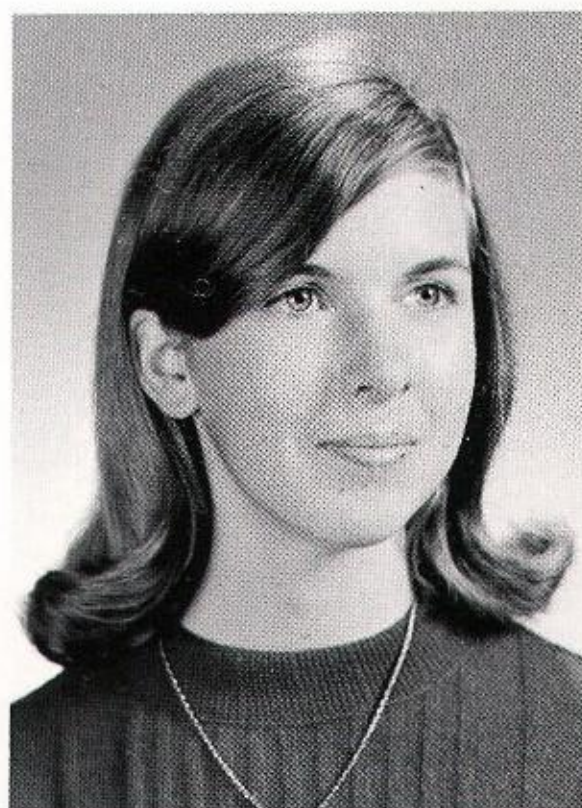

With your leadership this past year, our magazine sale was outstandingly successful. Your assistance was also much appreciated at basketball games and our other class undertakings. We sincerely thank you for all you contributed.

No, my neck's not stiff—the crown will fall off!

Time for some fun. Honest!

Get it even, Jill.

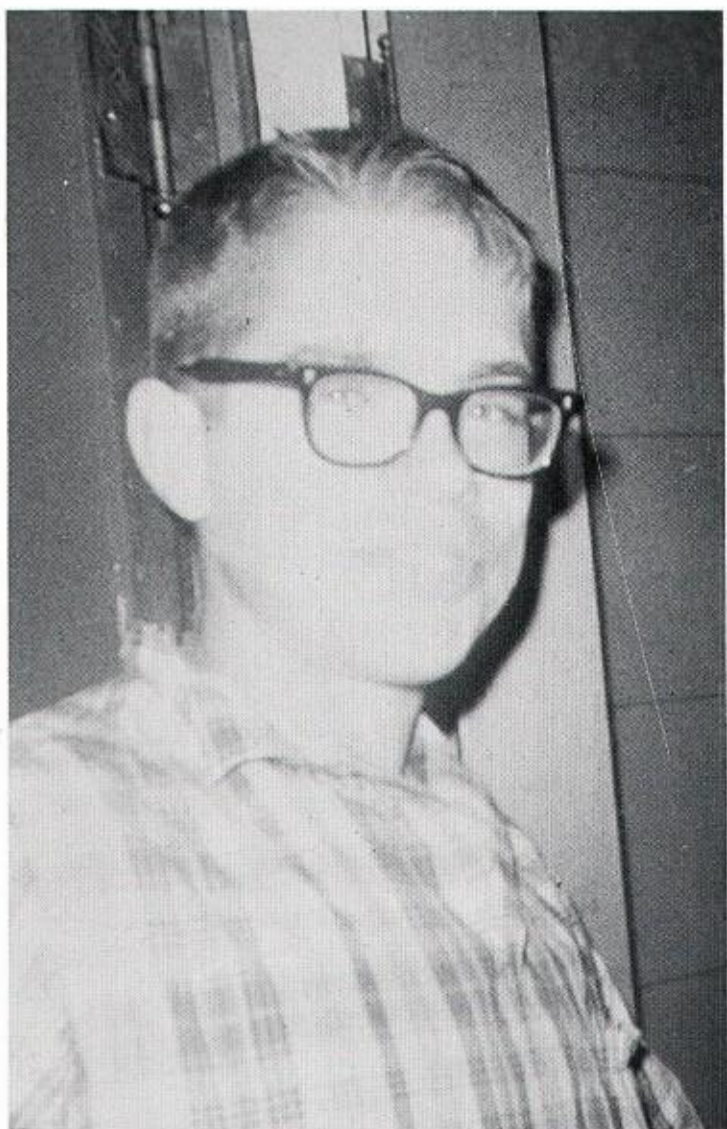

No, I'm not Boris Karloff!

Glamor.

Whoooo?

President Roosevelt, I presume.

Come on, Sal.

Does it check?

Two thirty-five's are better than one.

Where did she go?

There ought to be an easier way.

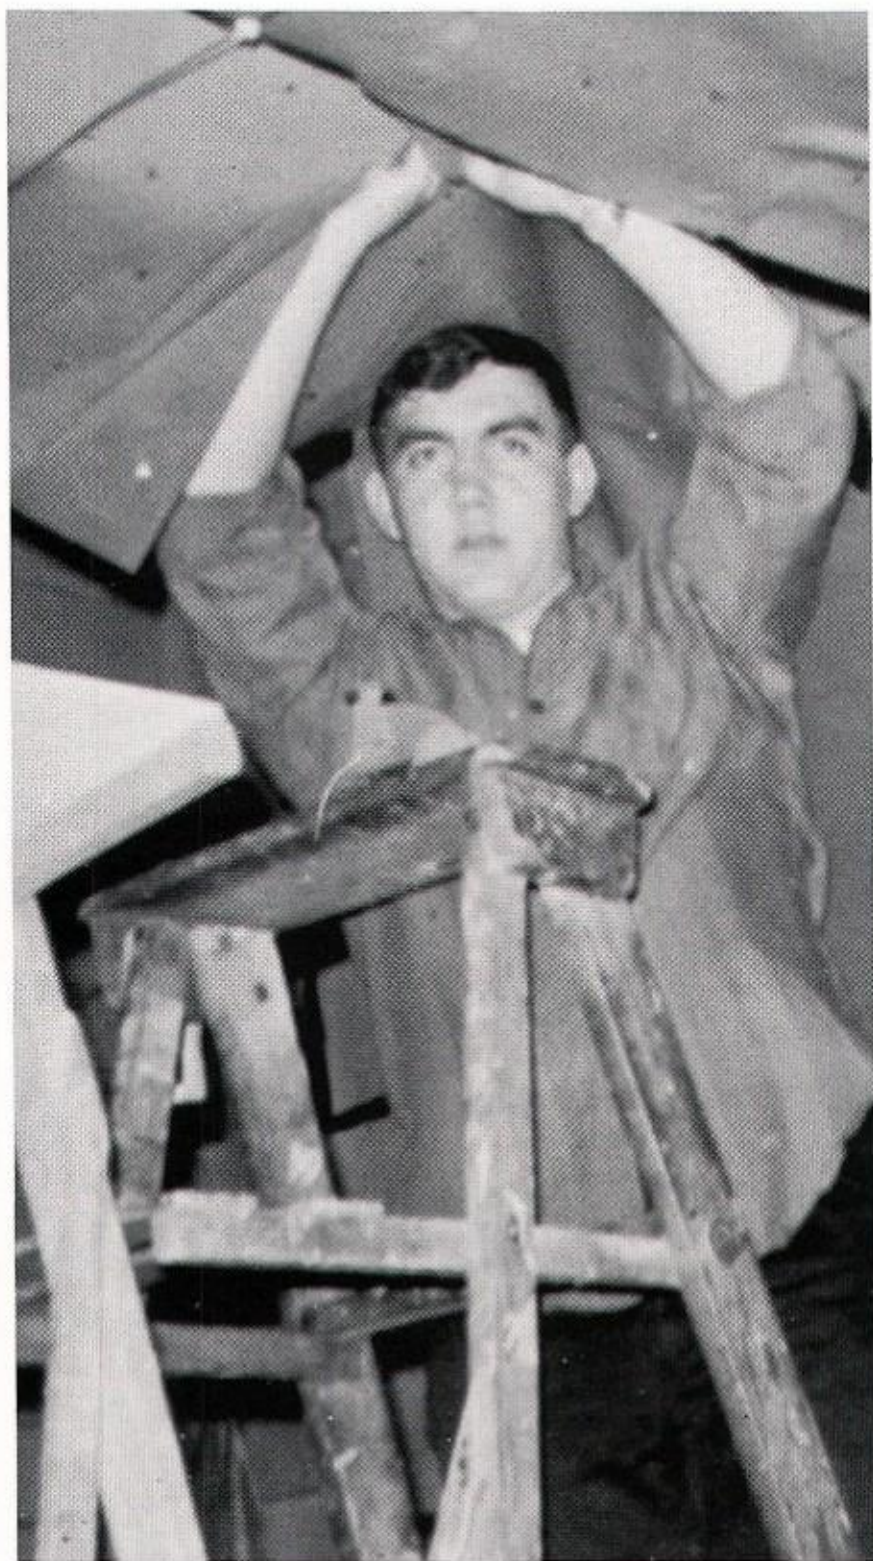

Concentration—even without Marcia!

If you don't get off my foot, I'll...!

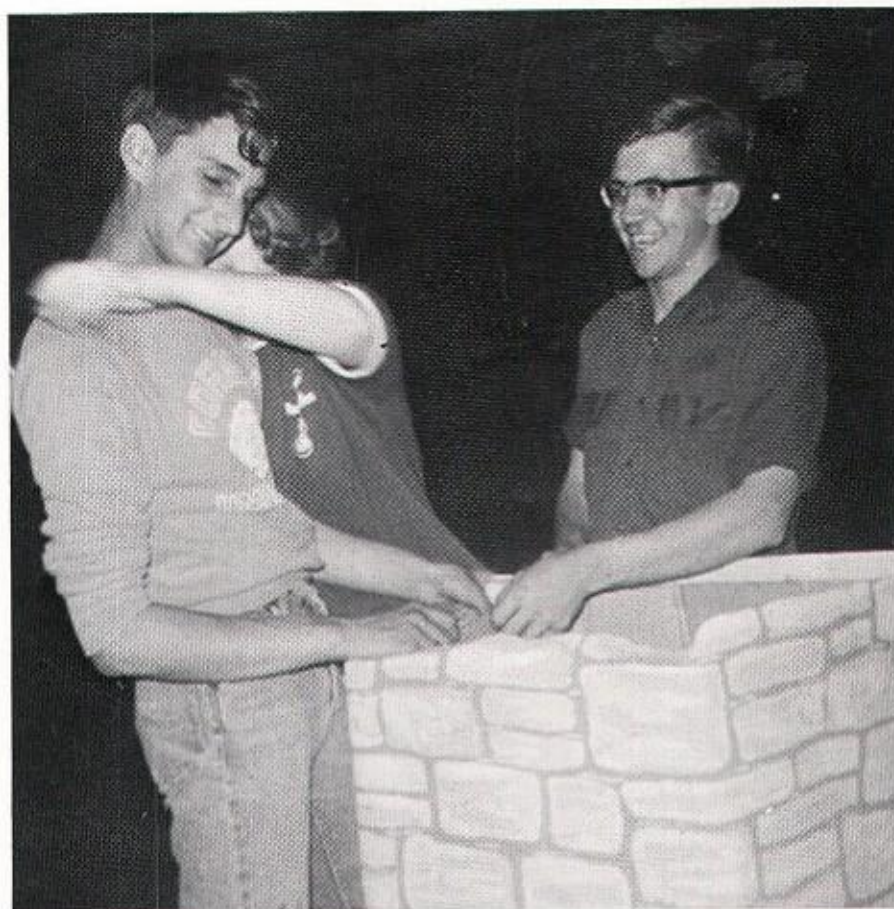

I know I had it!

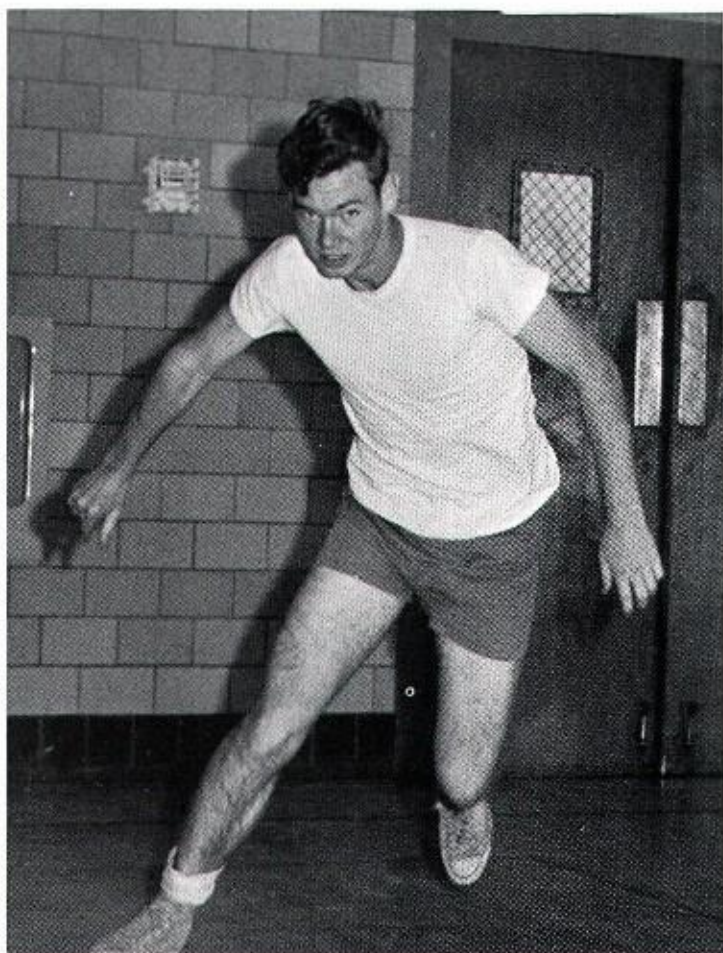

Seniors raise the roof!

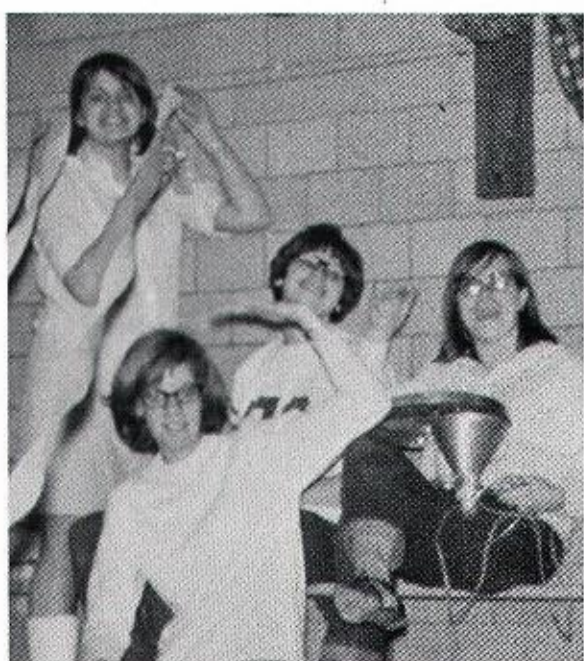

No, we aren't the Bobsey Twins!

Oh, Sal!

Thank the gods there are only 10 more minutes of gym!

Simple Simon says ...

The Globe Trotters?

Just like Mom used to make ... 'til I moved out.

Rae—a drop of golden sun?!

This is not the end. It is not even the beginning of the end.
It is rather the end of the beginning.

Winston Churchill.
